Our process

Understand your requirements

- You no longer live in this country
- You're time poor
- You want to be more 'hands-off' with your property
- You want more financial security
- Difficulty finding tenants

Viewings & Contractual Agreements

- Nexi come and view your property to assess viability
- Come to a mutual agreement for length of tenure – which usually ranges from 3-7 years long
- Come to a mutual agreement on your guaranteed monthly payments from us – importantly, with NO VOID PERIODS

Refurbs

- Whether it be just a fresh lick of paint throughout the property, or internal structural work; we want to ensure the property is of the highest possible standard
- It is our guarantee then when it comes to the end of the tenure, your property will be handed back in the same (if not better!) condition then when we acquired it
- We make it a priority to ensure all the safety regulations are adhered to and are set up appropriately

Marketing & Advertising

- We ensure the property is marketing on all the major platforms to gain as much reach as possible
- We pride ourselves on our vetting process – making sure that we have the right tenants
- There is no additional cost to you with marketing and advertising! We deal with all M&A costs

End of tenancy

- It is our promise that a thorough inspection is made of the property; cross checking against the inventory taken at the beginning of the tenancy, to make sure the property is left in the same, if not better condition than when the tenancy was taken out
- At the end of every contract (between Nexi and you) there is an opportunity for you to sell your property to us – should you want the ultimate hand-off life, to enjoy the funds from the sale

Guaranteed Rent

Cost benefits of Nexi Property vs letting agents

How much will I receive?

The monthly amount quoted by high street estate agents is not what is received in your bank account at the end of each month and even more so at the end of the year.

There are various 'hidden' and 'unexpected' costs which creep into the mix.

They vary from set up costs to monthly deductions to yearly charges. If you breakdown that cost over a monthly basis the real revenue received will be significantly lower.

We have created an example below of what this could mean for you based on a typical £4,000 a month rental quote.

Nexi Property on the other hand offers a fixed and guaranteed monthly price so you can forecast your exact cashflow.

Description	Letting Agent (PCM)	Nexi Property (PCM)
Quoted Total	£4,000	£3,750
Management Fees (12%)	(£480)	£0
Contract Renewals	(£20)	£0
General Repairs (7.5%)	(£200)	£0
Inventory Check In / Out	(£25)	£0
Void Period (3 weeks)	(£250)	£0
Professional cleaning fees	(£22)	£0
Actual Amount Received	£3,003	£3,750

Management Service

Offering dynamic & collaborative solutions to our landlords

Tailored for you

At Nexi Property we understand that not one shoe fits all, that is why we have created an alternative service that allows us to offer our highly engaged landlords a maximum upside by choosing us as their management agent.

Serviced Accommodation Full Management

With our management service we charge a 20% management fee based on the profit per month*. This service allows the landlord to maximise profitability without the hassle of overseeing everyday operations.

Nexi Property will:

- o Provide Guest Amenities - We'll prepare your home in advance to create a premium experience for guests, providing hotel-style linen, towels and toiletries during their stay.
- o Offer Guest services - Our Guest Services team will manage all guest requirements during their stay, promptly handling any enquiries so the Landlord can enjoy their time in peace.
- o Dedicated in-house property management - Our team is on hand to assist guests with queries during their stay. To ensure the utmost care of your home, we employ our own in-house team of maintenance staff, housekeeping supervisors and property managers.
- o Multi-channel Marketing - A professional photoshoot will be arranged to capture your home in the best possible light. Once you've approved your listing, we'll market your property to global audiences via various channels and use the relationships we have with corporate companies. Our team will also keep you informed of potential media opportunities to further showcase your home.
- o Expert pricing and revenue management – With our tailor-made revenue management approach, our team can provide expert pricing advice and insight on how to maximise your annual rental income throughout the year.

In this scenario the landlord is obliged to cover all operational & maintenance costs. However, Nexi Property will ensure it all gets executed on time and to perfection so that maximum revenue is achieved.

Safety Regulations

The handy check-list of legal requirement within your property

Introduction

At Nexi, we believe we have a duty of care to ensure that we have supplied details to all the recommended regulations required for letting out your property.

Whilst there may seem as though there are a lot certificates and regulations to abide by, we have to remember that they are there for a reason; to not only keep your property safe, but you and the tenants safe!

Safety Checklist

The Furniture & Furnishings (Fire Safety) Regulations

Electrical Equipment (Safety) Regulations 1994

Gas Safety (Installation and Use) Regulations 1998

The Plugs and Sockets etc (Safety) Regulations 1994

Buildings and contents insurance

Carbon Monoxide and Smoke Detectors

Part P of Building Regulations January 2005

Safety Regulations

The handy check-list of legal requirement within your property

Energy Performance Certificate*

Landlords are legally required to provide tenants with an Energy Performance Certificate, which should be obtained before marketing commences. We can arrange for this to be carried out. We also often meet landlords who are unaware of the Landlord's Energy Savings Allowance (LESA). This allows landlords to offset the cost of installing energy saving measures, including loft, cavity wall and floor insulation, against income tax up to a value of £1,500.

Gas Safety (Installation and Use) Regulations 1998*

A landlord must ensure that all gas appliances and installations at the property remain safe at all times and are checked for safety at least once every 12 months by a Gas Safe engineer, and a Gas Safety certificate issued. If a certificate is not issued, or the property fails the safety check, a tenant cannot move into or remain in the property until the problem has been rectified and the certificate issued.

The Furniture & Furnishings (Fire Safety) Regulations

These apply to all upholstery and upholstered furniture supplied by a landlord and all relevant items must carry the appropriate safety label. Any non-compliant furniture must be removed from the property.

Electrical Equipment (Safety) Regulations 1994

These regulations apply to all landlords who let accommodation which contains electrical equipment. The requirement is for all electrical equipment to be safe. Although there is no mandatory requirement for equipment to be checked by a qualified electrician, we do recommend annual safety checks of all electrical appliances by a suitably qualified professional as well as providing instruction books for the user where appropriate.

Safety Regulations

The handy check-list of legal requirement within your property

The Plugs and Sockets (Safety) Regulations 1994

These regulations require any plug, socket or adapter which is intended for domestic use to comply with the appropriate current standard (BS1363) or approved alternatives, and that plugs are fitted with a fuse that conforms to the appropriate current standard (BS1362).

Buildings and Contents Insurance

Your property must have adequate buildings insurance and your insurers must be notified that the property is to be rented out. We recommend that landlord's contents insurance is in place to cover your own fixtures, fittings and any white goods and furniture.

Carbon Monoxide and Smoke Detectors

Landlords are required by law to install a working smoke detector on each floor of their property and a carbon monoxide monitor in any room with a solid fuel burning appliance, such as wood burner, open fire or Aga.

Part P of Building Regulations January 2005

Any electrical work carried out in homes and gardens should follow the rules set out in Part P of the building regulations to ensure compliance with the law. These rules are designed to ensure that electrical work is safe. Work that is subject to the provisions of Part P will need to be carried out and approved by an appropriately qualified electrician, or notified to the local authority and inspected by the local authority building control service.

Attracting Tenants

Our effective marketing techniques

Introduction

We understand that in order to achieve the highest rental income possible for our landlords, we must ensure exceptional marketing and presentation of all our properties are achieved.

With this objective in mind, we have a dedicated team who will build a unique and fully comprehensive marketing strategy to ensure optimal exposure of our landlords properties. This strategy will encompass a strong online presence via our website and other major platforms like Rightmove.

Let's not forget the importance on offline advertising too. We will curate ads that will appear in various mediums such as direct mail, leafleting and local newspapers to further ensure maximum exposure.

Selecting the right tenant

The success of the Nexi Lettings Team is based on our ability to make the correct judgement, knowing when to refuse or accept an applicant.

A significant number of applicants are unsuitable either because of their financial situation or an adverse credit history.

Our Lettings Team will take a deep dive to understand all your expectations and requirements and will strive to find you the most suitable tenant(s) accordingly. We typically exclude the following types of tenants:

- Smokers
- Unemployed
- Poor credit score
- Pet owners

Setting up the tenancy

Contracts and certificates for short & long-term stays

Introduction

Here at Nexi, we are able to advise on the safety regulations and requirements which apply to rented properties and ensure that landlords are protected and complying with all relevant regulations. It goes without saying that it would always be our recommendation to ensure you are a fully compliant landlord!

1 The Tenancy Agreement

Following the valuing and marketing of the property, someone from the Nexi team will accompany potential tenants to all viewings. We will then organise references through an independent referencing agency, including an employment reference and a credit status check. Following a satisfactory outcome we will prepare a suitable Tenancy Agreement (depending on the management service chosen).

2 Energy Performance Certificate (EPC)

It is law to provide all new tenancies with an energy performance certificate. The certificate addresses the full energy efficiency of the property including environmental impact. The certificate is valid for 10 years from inspection and Nexi will arrange for this to be carried out on behalf of the landlord.

3 Mortgage Company requirements

Unless you have a buy to let mortgage, consent will need to be obtained from your mortgage company. They will require information on the type of tenancy agreement, length of tenancy and insist on the correct documentation for re-occupation. In some cases, the mortgage company will levy an administration charge for giving consent.

4 Inventory/Schedule of Condition

Prior to tenancy, Nexi will arrange for the preparation of an Inventory. This document is an accurate and detailed description of the interior of the property, a record of furniture, fittings and decorative order. At the end of the tenancy, the property is inspected again and any damage or deterioration noted. The tenants are responsible for the cost of rectifying any damage caused to the property and this cost is deducted from the tenant's deposit. The Inventory will be used to prevent or resolve disputes between the landlord and tenants.

5 Rental Payments and Deposits

Once the tenant signs the agreement, Nexi will take one month's rent and the deposit. The amount of deposit varies, but usually is equivalent to one to two months rent. Nexi will ensure all funds are cleared prior to moving in the tenant and will manage the Standing Order process in respect to future rental payments.

6 Tenancy Deposit Protection Scheme

Nexi Property are members of The Tenancy Deposit Scheme (www.thedisputeservice.co.uk). All Landlords and Agents are required to join either an insurance based Tenancy Scheme or enter into a Government Custodial Scheme in order to hold the tenants deposit.
